RIGHT TO REQUEST A HEARING

Either petitioner or respondent may request a hearing to apply for further temporary orders, or to modify or revoke one or more terms of this automatic mutual restraining order, by filing with the court a request for hearing and paying the clerk the statutory first-appearance fee. The court will not accept the objection (it will be ineffective) unless the appearance fee is paid. You must also mail a copy of the objection to the petitioner's attorney. The objection applies only to this order and has no impact on requests that the petitioner may have made in a motion for temporary relief or the petition for dissolution.
